Job Description

SENIOR PASTOR

MINISTRY OVERVIEW

Center City Evangelical Free Church, in alignment with God's vision, is seeking a man with a pastoral calling to teach, shepherd, and oversee the congregation to preach the Gospel of Christ in downtown Albuquerque.

This position is best understood as working in conjunction with a plurality of elders and as such he will fulfill the biblical job description of a Pastor/Teacher/Equipper as outlined in Ephesians 4:11-13.

- As a Pastor, he will serve as the primary shepherd, responsible for the care of the flock (John 21:15-17; Acts 20:28-30; 1 Peter 5:1-3).
- As a Teacher, he will be the primary preacher and teacher, responsible for feeding the flock through sound biblical teaching of God's Word (Acts 6:4, 1 Timothy 4:13; 2 Timothy 2:15; 4:1-4,).
- As an Equipper, he will help the church grow in maturity, discipleship, unity, and evangelism by training and building up members of the body to handle God's Word, as well as identifying, training, and developing new leaders in the church (Acts 6:1-4; Colossians 1:28-29; 2 Timothy 2:1-2).

MINISTRY QUALIFICATIONS

The Senior Pastor must be male (1 Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:6), an exemplary Christian, capable of providing spiritual leadership in accordance with the biblical qualifications of an elder (1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:7-9). In addition, the Senior Pastor must meet the following qualifications:

- A testimony of saving faith in Jesus Christ and a life consistent with that testimony.
- An advanced theological degree from an accredited seminary or other religious institution, or equivalent experience handling God's Word.
- Agreement with the EFCA Statement of Faith as a valid expression of Christian belief.
- Be ordained in the EFCA, or be willing to pursue ordination if not already ordained.
- Demonstrate competency in preaching and teaching God's Word.
- A calling for ministry in a downtown community.
- Acknowledge membership (both Pastor and his wife, if applicable) in Center City Church upon employment.
